

Import Requirements: Cattle, yak, and bison

Page 2

- Direct to Slaughter
- Direct to Veterinary Facility without change in ownership
- Direct to Designated Feedlot
- Direct to Livestock Market

Page 3

Rodeo or recreation (rodeo events, roping events, cutting events, penning events, gymkhanas, and steer wrestling events)

Page 4

Exhibition, show, or fair

Page 5

Commuter Permit or Adjacent State Permit

Dairy

Page 6

- Breeding or milking purposes (including nurse cows)
- Companion animal
- All crossbred dairy cattle

Emergency Federal Rule: See HPAI testing requirements for lactating dairy cattle on Page 6.

Beef

Page 7

- Feeding purposes only
- Seasonal grazing purposes only

Page 8

- Breeding purposes
- Companion animal
- All other beef cattle, bison, and yak

NOTE: Electronic CVIs do not need a permit number.

Reason for movement - Applies to all cattle, yak, and bisonDirect to Slaughter*Requirements:

- No CVI required.
- Official ID or a USDA-approved backtag is required for import direct to slaughter UNLESS a USDA-approved backtag will be placed at the slaughter establishment.

Direct to Designated FeedlotRequirements:

- CVI issued within the last 30 days.
- If cattle have Official ID prior to import, it must be listed on the CVI.
- If cattle do not have Official ID, the statement "Bovinae in this shipment are moving to an Approved Tagging Site" must be included on the CVI.

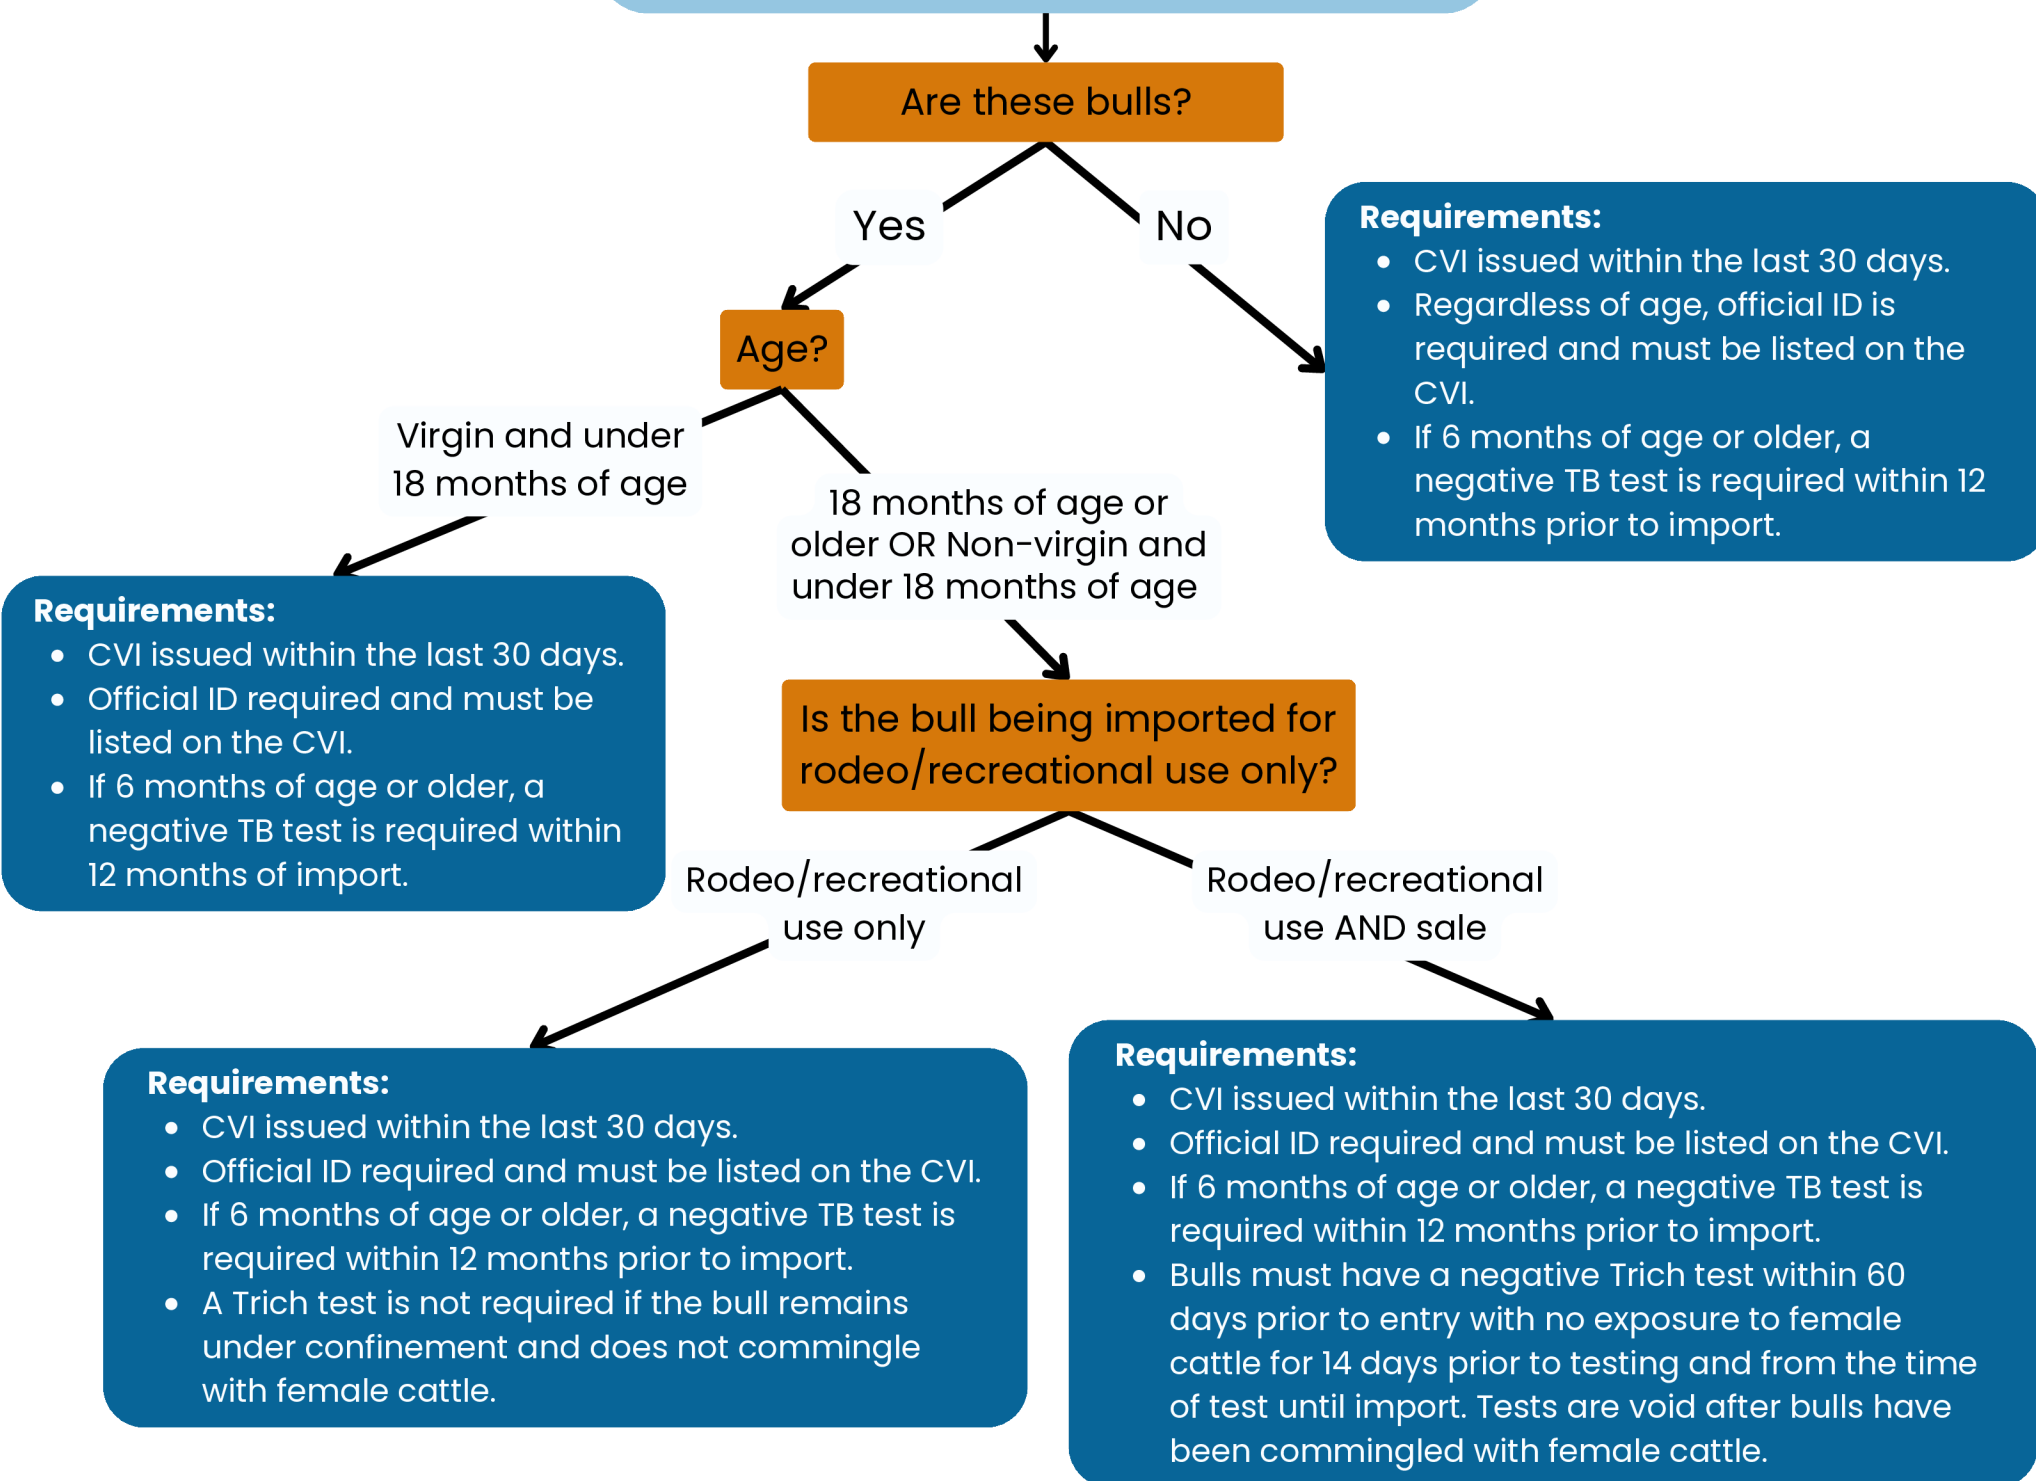

Direct to Veterinary Facility without change in ownershipRequirements:

- No CVI required.
- No Official ID required.

Direct to Livestock MarketRequirements:

- No CVI required.
- Official ID is not required for import. Classes of cattle requiring official ID must have official ID applied at the market.

Import for Rodeo or Recreational Events

Import for Exhibition/Show/Fair

Are these bulls?

Yes

No

Requirements:

- CVI issued within the last 30 days.
- Official ID required and must be listed on the CVI.

Virgin and under 18 months of age

Age?

18 months of age or older OR Non-virgin and under 18 months of age

Requirements:

- CVI issued within the last 30 days.
- Official ID required and must be listed on the CVI.
- Exhibition cattle are exempt from brucellosis vaccination requirements as long as they are not staying in Wyoming (if they are staying in Wyoming, please see relevant rules on pages 6-8)

Is the bull being imported for exhibition only or exhibition and sale?

Exhibition only

Exhibition and sale

Requirements:

- CVI issued within the last 30 days.
- Official ID required and must be listed on the CVI.
- A trich test is not required if the bull remains under confinement and does not commingle with female cattle.

Requirements:

- CVI issued within the last 30 days.
- Official ID required and must be listed on the CVI.
- Bulls must have a negative trich test within 60 days prior to entry with no exposure to female cattle for 14 days prior to testing and from the time of test until import. Tests are void after bulls have been commingled with female cattle.

Import on Commuter or Adjacent State Permit

Has the commuter or adjacent state permit been approved by the State Animal Health Official of both the state of origin and destination?

Yes

No

Is Wyoming the state of origin?

Contact the Wyoming Livestock Board at 307-777-7515.

Yes

No

Requirements:

- Original CVI from initial movement
- Copy of approved Commuter/Adjacent State permit

Requirements:

- CVI issued within last 30 days.
- Copy of approved Commuter/Adjacent State permit.
- Import requirements as documented in the Commuter/Adjacent state permit must be followed.

Import for breeding or milking purposes OR as a companion animal OR for grazing or feeding

Dairy and Dairy crosses

What class of animals are being moved?

Bulls

Cows and heifers

Age?

Age?

Virgin and under 18 months of age

18 months of age or older
OR Non-virgin and under 18 months of age

Under 12 months of age

12 months of age and older

Is the destination within the Brucellosis DSA?

Yes

No

Requirements:

- CVI issued within the last 30 days.
- Official ID required and must be recorded on the CVI.

Requirements:

- CVI issued within the last 30 days.
- Official ID required and must be listed on the CVI.
- Bulls must have a negative trich test within 60 days prior to entry with no exposure to female cattle for 14 days prior to testing and from the time of test until import. Tests are void after bulls have been commingled with female cattle.

Requirements:

- CVI issued within the last 30 days.
- Official ID required and must be listed on the CVI.
- Brucellosis vaccination is required for heifers 4 months of age and older prior to import, unless the calf is still by it's mother's side.
- All DSA heifers must be brucellosis vaccinated when they become vaccine eligible (4 months of age) or by February 1.

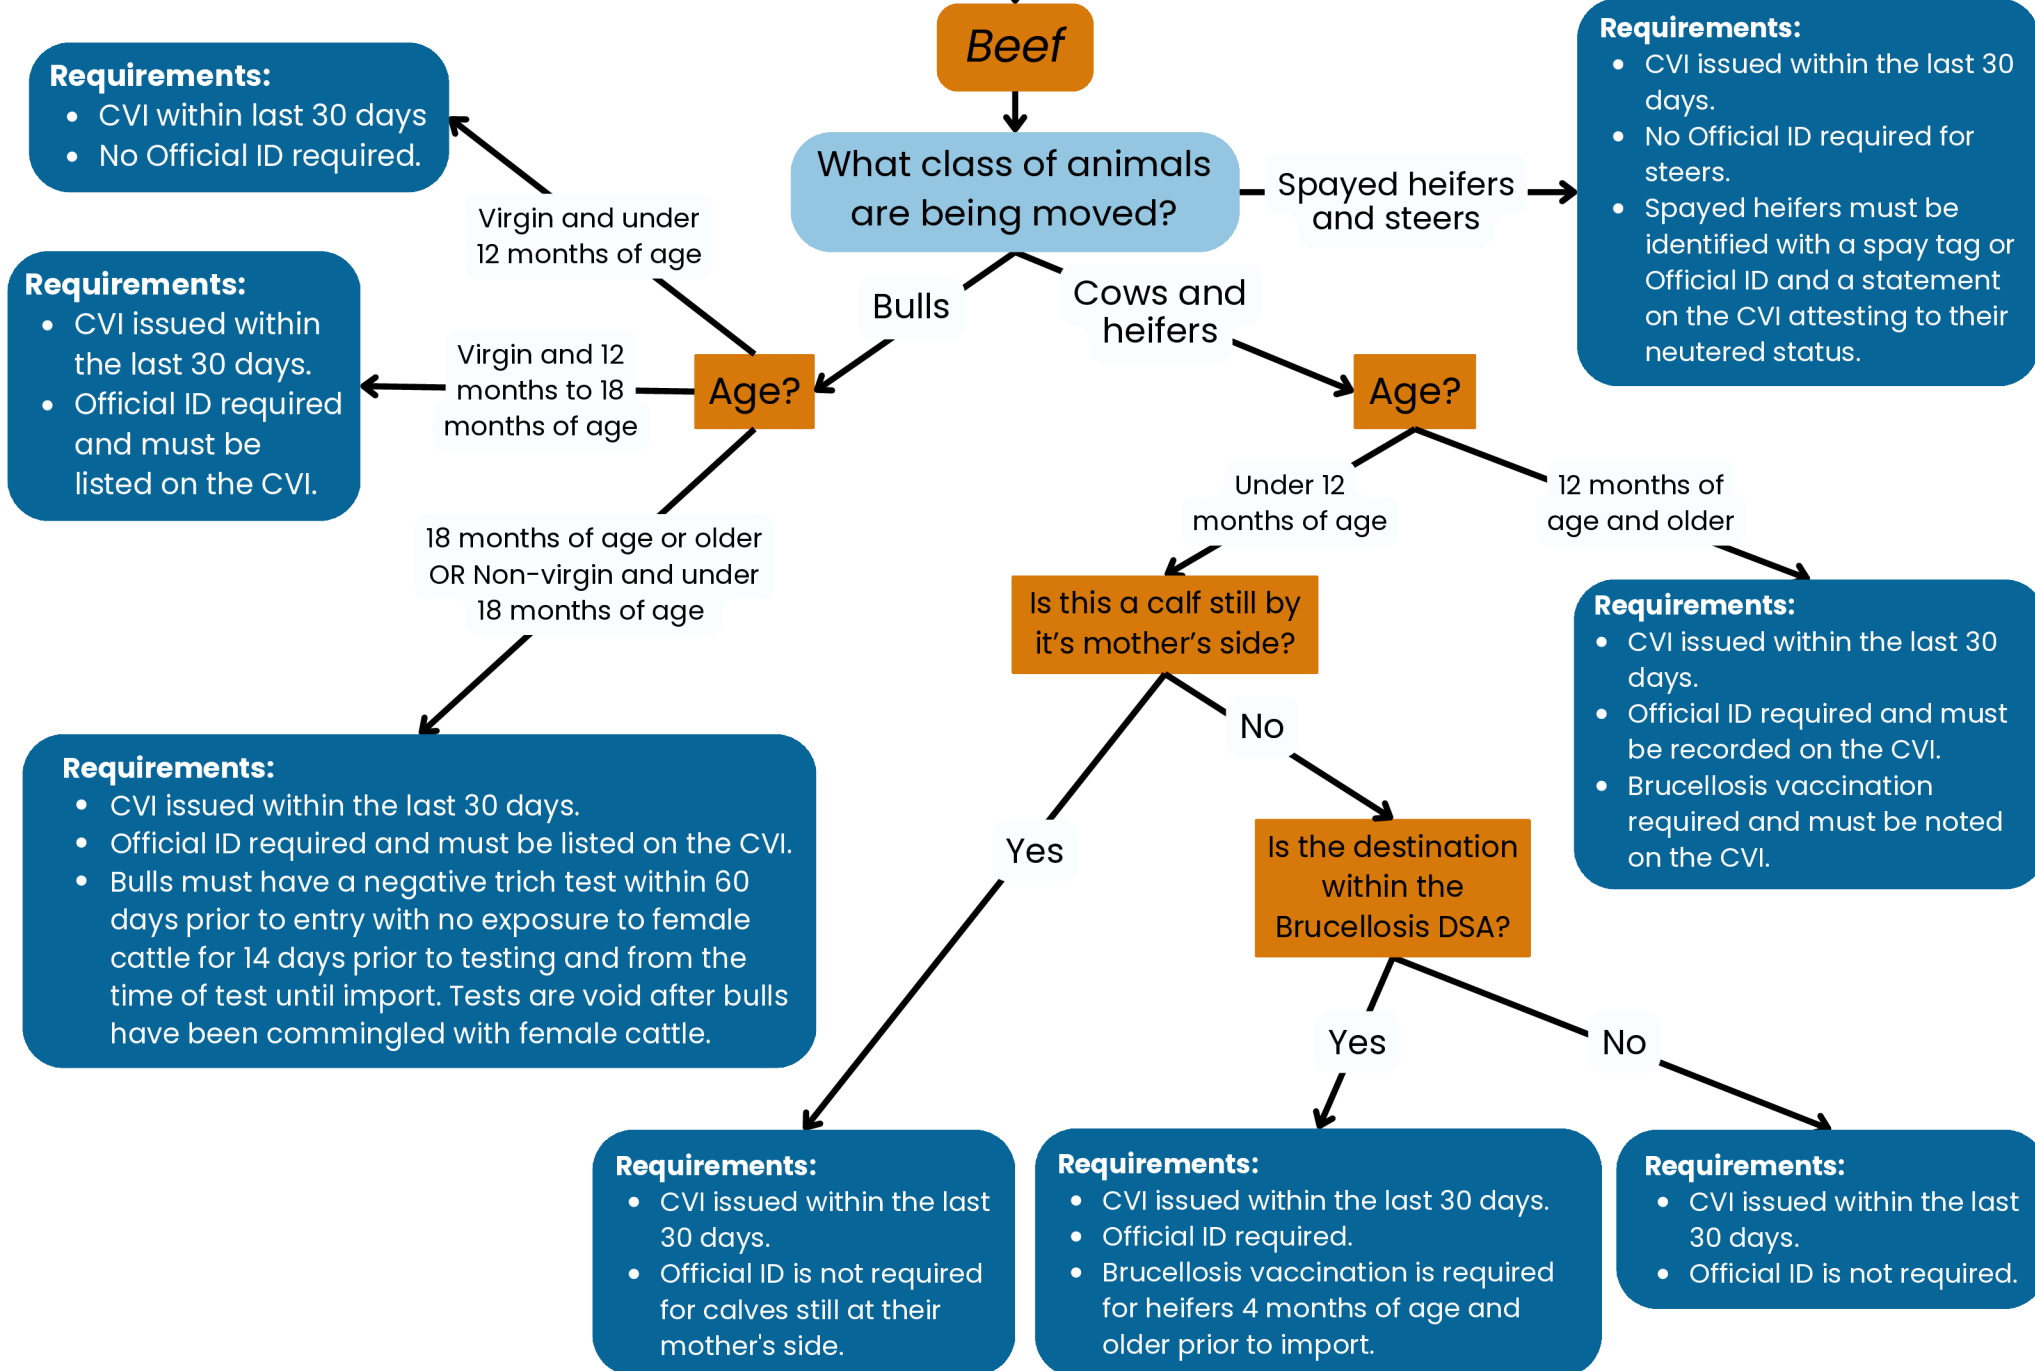

Requirements:

- CVI issued within the last 30 days.
- Official ID required and must be listed on the CVI.
- Brucellosis vaccination is required by 12 months of age.

Emergency Federal Rule:

Lactating dairy cattle imported from States that do not have Unaffected State Status, must have a negative test for HPAI within 7 days prior to movement.

Import for feeding or seasonal grazing ONLY

Import for breeding purposes OR as a companion animal

Beef

What class of animals are being moved?

Bulls

Cows and heifers

Requirements:

- CVI issued within the last 30 days.
- No Official ID required.

Virgin and under 12 months of age

Virgin and 12 months to 18 months of age

18 months of age or older OR Non-virgin and under 18 months of age

Requirements:

- CVI issued within the last 30 days.
- Official ID required and must be listed on the CVI.

Requirements:

- CVI issued within the last 30 days.
- Official ID required and must be listed on the CVI.
- Bulls must have a negative trich test within 60 days prior to entry with no exposure to female cattle for 14 days prior to testing and from the time of test until import. Tests are void after bulls have been commingled with female cattle.

Age?

Under 12 months of age

Is this a calf still by it's mother's side?

Yes

No

Is the destination within the Brucellosis DSA?

Is the destination within the Brucellosis DSA?

Yes

No

Yes

No

Requirements:

- CVI issued within the last 30 days.
- Official ID is not required for calves still at their mother's side.
- All DSA heifers must be brucellosis vaccinated when they become vaccine eligible (4 months of age) or by February 1.

Requirements:

- CVI issued within the last 30 days.
- Official ID is not required for calves still at their mother's side.
- Brucellosis vaccination is required by 12 months of age.

Requirements:

- CVI issued within the last 30 days.
- Official ID required.
- Brucellosis vaccination is required for heifers 4 months of age and older prior to import.
- All DSA heifers must be brucellosis vaccinated when they become vaccine eligible (4 months of age) or by February 1.

Requirements:

- CVI issued within the last 30 days.
- Official ID required and must be recorded on the CVI.
- Brucellosis vaccination required and must be noted on the CVI.

12 months of age and older